PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We are now getting into the Holiday Season and I hope you are painting away. I always look forward to seeing your Christmas cards and holiday paintings.

The next First Friday will be on November 5th, and I do hope everyone will come. We will have a reception for the First Place Fair Winners, give out Fair Scholarships, honor those members who work so hard at the Fair (by the way, THANK YOU) and meet new customers from our community.

If you are not a participant in the BAA Art Center, please consider it. We have plenty of great space upstairs. It is very reasonably priced - only one or two sittings a month, great exposure, and a wonderful opportunity to get involved with the best of all Organizations. See Ann Sullivan if you want to be a part of the Art Center.

For those of you who are already showing in the Art Center, remember to change out your pictures on a regular basis. I have had "several" people come to me and say how they love to come downtown every week or so, to see all the new and beautiful work the BAA has to offer.

I know we will all be wanting to attend the next General Meeting. We will celebrate our 66th Birthday Anniversary, founded on November 13, 1944. Speakers will share the past, present and future of our organization. These speakers are getting together to give us the full history of our organization. You won't want to miss this! See you at the General Meeting, November 13th at 9 a.m. Bring your cameras, camcorders and yourselves to this "historic" meeting and a great big BD cake.

Remember the Mardi Gras is being planned right now. SAVE THE DATE - March 4, 2011. We need SPONSORS, do you know of anyone or yourself who will donate sponsor money??? Let us know. Contact, Stella Mullins, Ann Sullivan or Kathy Schilling and we will get you all the information you will need to help us make this a fantanublous event. Also, Mardi Gras flyers will soon be at the Art Center soon for you to pick up.

See you at the First Friday events / reception and the General Meeting for our anniversary celebration.

PROGRAMS

(by Floyd Dillon)

NOVEMBER PROGRAM

BAA turns 66. I'm told that it has been tumultuous at times. Shirley Rowles compares it to a roller coaster ride with major ups and downs. Shirley and five others (Beverly Carrick, Lee Clark, Iva Fendrick, Fred Jacober and Kathy Miller) have volunteered to relate venues and events from five periods of BAA's past. If you don't know your past, how do you set your course to progress? This should bring back memories for long term members, but for more recent members it will be very enlightening. So, come and be enlightened. Help us celebrate, and enjoy a slice of anniversary birthday cake baked and decorated by Emily Mbong.

JANUARY 8th PROGRAM

Here is everyone's opportunity to voice their opinion as to the type of program we start with for the NEW YEAR. I can either have a presenter as we have for most of the programs or we could have a "Show and Tell" . . . or we could have a "Show and Critique". Several individuals have voiced that we haven't had opportunities for members to show their art to the group. For the "Show and Tell", each member would be invited to bring a piece of art and explain why they selected the subject, how they went about creating the piece, and what they like about the finished product. For the "Show and Critique", each member would be invited to bring a piece of art for fellow members to review and provide comments as to what they deem to be good and what might be improved. So...here is what everyone needs to do - VOICE WHAT TYPE OF PROGRAM YOU WANT. Send your votes to dillonmabq@gmail.com by November 14th.

ART CENTER COMMITTEE REPORT

(by Ann Sullivan, Manager)

The holidays are coming. If you hang or display your art work at the Art Center, please try to have some festive items you can hang or display for our holiday sales. Don't forget Carol Bradshaw will be looking for holiday themed cards (760-376-6604). Make sure to contact her about cards. However, if you are not currently displaying art work in the Center, you will need to contact me (Ann-328-9237).

The sign is finished. The next time you come to the Art Center, you will see in big, bold letters "ART CENTER" over the front door. Next, Richard Geissel will paint the BAA logo on the front walls on either side of the front windows under the awning.

If you haven't seen the Kern County Fair Winners' Show, be sure to come to First Friday on November 4th from 6 to 9 p.m. Hot Cotton will be playing, the BAA will introduce the first place winners, and the winners will be drawn for the paintings that we sold raffled tickets for during the Fair. I wanted to say a big Thank You to Fred Jacober, Richard Geissel and Floyd Dillon for their help hanging the show.

Our next big project will be painting the special exhibits wall a different color. After that, we will be adding words to the windows letting customers know what is available in our Art Center.

We have invited a new artist to join us in the Art Center — Lionel Rodriguez. And, if I haven't mentioned it before, Michelle Stone (paintings) and Loretta Battan (photography) have joined us in the mezzanine.

Remember our new hours: Tuesday thru Thursday 11 to 4 and Friday 11 to 9; Closed Saturday, Sunday and Monday.
