PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We had a wonderful September meeting. Thank you to all for coming. I know some of you were at the Wasco Rose Festival. Here is CONGRATULATIONS to ANN SULLIVAN and CHARLOTTE WHITE for their great sales. Wow, they sold over $1,800, last I heard, maybe more - we'll all know at our next meeting.

Our next meeting will be OCTOBER 9th at 9 a.m. Our guest speaker will be Hank Washington from South High School. He a fine artist in all mediums. He will be speaking on mentoring young artists.

All the Fair winners will soon be on the walls of the Art Center. If you were not able to see them at the Fair, or even if you did, it would be fun to bring a friend into the Center to show off these wonderful winners. Congratulations to all of you, and thank you to all who entered the Kern County Fair - we know you are all winners.

This year we are going to do a lot of focusing on the SCHOLARSHIP program. Thank you, to those of you who donated a picture for the raffle at the Kern County Fair. The money we earned from this fundraiser will be set aside for the scholarship program.

I have "applications" for anyone wanting to apply for a scholarship. One application is for children and one is for teachers. We can also accept any application you or someone you know would like to submit to the Scholarship Chairman, Michelle Leggett. She and her committee will review these applications, present their recommendations to the board, and then present them at an awards reception/presentation in or around May of 2011. This is still being discussed and will be presented by Michelle. See her if you have any ideas or can help. Thank you, Michelle for all you are doing - it is much appreciated.

Remember, the next general meeting is set for October 9th at 9 am at the Art Center, 1817 Eye Street. See you there.

Kathy Schilling,
President

ART SUPPLY CENTER

(by Toni Lott, ASC)

The Art Supply Center is donating brush holders for the monthly meeting raffle on October 9th. We enjoy the raffles very much. We are also offering a "Monet" French Easel valued at $125 for a special raffle - tickets for the easel will be sold for $5 and will be on sale starting October 1st (First Friday) and ending at the general meeting on October 9th. Don't miss out on this great raffle prize, and support your BAA.

BAA MEMBER NEWS

Get Well Wishes to Liz Trainor. She recently developed health issues that will make it difficult for her to participate as often as she has in the past. Liz has encouraged her husband, Don, in his painting; helped set up and host art shows; and attended BAA meetings faithfully. We will miss Liz and we hope she gets well soon so she can once again be active in BAA activities.

We are also glad to see Coral Pool Clark back at the Art Center.

WASCO ROSE FESTIVAL

(by Charlotte White)

Kudos to Ann Sullivan for being a huge success at the Wasco Rose Festival. Many of her previous students at Thomas Jefferson and educational colleagues, of 37 years in the Wasco Union Elementary School District, came out, visited her art display, and purchased her watercolors. Ann has generously donated 25% of her proceeds to BAA.

Come by the Art Center and check out her watercolor display on the second floor. It is worth climbing the stairs!

Group Art Show at Wasco a success! A tour bus from a college in Los Angeles and all the local Wasco citizens made for a busy day at the Wasco Rose Festival. We all had a chance to see the Rose Show next door and have a deep pit barbeque lunch.

Thanks to Maia Cummins, Tony Bijeaux, Nancy Merrick, Irene Paso, and Charlotte White for coming out and participating in the BAA Art Show inside the Veterans Building in Barker Park. Maia was the high sales artist in the group show with her delightful prints. An enjoyable time was had by all.

Congratulations to Cherice Hatton on the opening reception for her art show at the Bakersfield Mazda Gallery on Thursday, September 16th. The show continues through November.

PROGRAM

(by Floyd Dillon)

Hank Washington will be our featured speaker for the October 9th BAA meeting. With 36 years in public education and a member of the California Art Educators Association, he has an extensive background in mentoring young artists, as demonstrated by one of his students recently winning a prestigious statewide award. Hank's presentation will focus on helping young artists develop their talent and prepare for the various local and state art contests. Several of Hank's paintings as well as his students' works will be on view after his presentation.

Join us at our October monthly general meeting.

NOVEMBER PROGRAM

The BAA turns 66 on November 13th. I'm told that it has been tumultuous at times. Shirley Rowles compares it to a roller coaster ride with major ups and downs. Shirley and four others (Beverly Carrick, Iva Fendrick, Fred Jacober, and Kathy Miller) have volunteered to relate venues and events from five periods of BAA's past. If you don't know your past, how do you set your course to progress? This should bring back memories for long term members, but for more recent members it will be very enlightening. So, come and be enlightened—help us to celebrate, and enjoy a slice of birthday cake. Join us on November

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

VISUAL ARTS FESTIVAL at BMOA

(by Charlotte White)

Congratulations to Floyd Dillon, Patti Doolittle, Norma Eaton, Bonnie Hinelin-Kempner, Michele Nosco, Phyllis Oliver, Linda Osburn, Nicole Saint-John, Loretta Batton and Jacqueline Parish for being juried into the 2010 Visual Arts Festival.

Their "Vessels" themed work is in the main exhibit area at the Bakersfield Museum of Art. If you haven't seen the exhibit, please make time to go see the 56 entries on display!

BAA ART SHOW at the FOX THEATRE

During the "Maggie" Production, November 11-14, artists and photographers will have paints and photographs of the Fox Theatre, Inside and Out. The exhibit will be set-up on the mezzanine. Artists must purchase a show ticket ($25) or reception ticket ($15) to see the show. Show is open to all members. Friday, October 29th is the deadline to sign up at the Art Center in the show binder.

ART CENTER COMMITTEE REPORT

(by Ann Sullivan, Manager)

The Art Center Committee presented a request to paint outside signage on our new Art Center to the BAA board for approval. The Board approved the request, and the words "Art Center" will soon be painted outside above the awning. You will also be able to see Richard Geissel's winning BAA logo painted on the walls below the awning.

Those of you who volunteer your time working at the Art Center, contact Ann Sullivan at 328-9237 for a review of the procedures on sitting at the Art Center.

This holiday season we need to emphasize Gift Certificates and our Layaway program. Ann is reviewing how to do this procedure also.

A studio tour and private open house is being planned for a Sunday in November (details to follow). If you are interested in this event contact Ann.

The Kern County Fair Winners will be taken down at the fair on October 4th and will be accepted at the Art Center on the 4th and 5th and will be hung after the October 9th meeting. The show will start on Tuesday, October 12th.

Starting in October the Art Center will be closed on Saturdays and stay open later on Fridays. This will continue through the holiday season. We are trying to find the best hours to be open to reach the most customers.
